NEW BANK FORMED IN RUSHVILLE

American Security Co. Organizes
Among Local People to do
Industrial Banking

CAPITALIZES AT $100,000

Prominent Location is Secured And Business Will be Ready Within 30 Days—Meeting Tuesday

A new financial institution has been organized in Rushville known as the American Security Company, and will do a business along the lines of industrial banking, opening for business here within the next thirty days in a room centrally located in the business district, and will be capitalized for $100,000.

The fixtures will resemble a model bank, and the stock in the new company is now being sold to the city's leading business men, bankers, manufacturers, investors and professional men.

The local institution, which is being promoted by W. E. Byrket and R. D. Edwards of Newcastle, will be similar to a chain of institutions which have already been organized and are in operation at Columbus, Shelbyville, Wabash, Peru, Elwood, Newcastles, Brazil, Frankfort, Crawfordsville and Noblesville.

It will be a local institution controlled by Rushville people, and to its stockholders the company agrees to pay eight per cent dividends, the stock will not be non-taxable and non-assessable and in places where these banks have been running the stock has increased as much as 30 percent in a year.

Each company is organized on its own basis and under the laws of the state. A local manager will be selected by the board of managers and whoever is selected as manager will take a course in schooling at one of the other institutions.

It is the intention to complete the organization in the county within the next few days and probably within thirty days the new bank will be in operation. Some of the most prominent men of the community are enlisted for stock.

There will be a meeting Tuesday evening in the commissioners' room of the court house at 4 o'clock when the election of directors will take place, and a discussion entered into, and all those interested are asked to attend.

One of the ways in which the company will function will be in the handling of commercial paper that comes into the hands of business men and manufacturers and much of which now goes to Indianapolis and other places for discount.

This of itself will make the institution a valuable one for business men whose sales of a special character compel them to take more paper in the conduct of their business than they are able to carry and which must be converted into cash.

Another business will be to finance people in building projects and to assist business houses financially. The charges for such loans will be moderate and many people who have no bank accounts become regular customers and are able later to own their own homes and have other conveniences and pleasures that otherwise would be denied them.

The installation of one of these institutions has just been completed at Noblesville, and among the stockholders in that city are the following people: I. C. Jones, director of the Wainwright Trust Company and the Citizens State bank; Harry L. Craig, vice president of the Citizens' bank; J. W. Smith, vice president of the American National bank; M. C. Howorth, president of the First National bank; A. D. Booth, a retired capitalist and N. W. Cowgill, cashier of the First National bank.

C. W. GATES MOVES HERE

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gates and family have moved to this city from Indianapolis and will make their future home at 710 North Sexton street. Mr. Gates is connected with the Wiley's Light Plant Company of this city.

FORTY PIECE BAND WILL GIVE SIX HOUR CONCERT

Change is Made in Program For Carthage Corner Stone Laying
Which Will be Held Sunday

BUILDING UNDER WAY NOW

Several changes have been made in the program for Sunday at Carthage, when the corner stone laying of the new public auditorium will take place, at which time Judge Will M. Sparks of this city will deliver the principal address. The ceremonies were originally set for last Sunday, but were postponed on account of the rain.

A bigger program will be given Sunday, when the well known Connersville band of forty pieces will render a six hour concert, beginning at 10:30 in the morning. The address will be given at two o'clock, from the stage of the auditorium, and seats will be furnished for the audience. The basement and first story exteriors are about completed.

The Commercial club of the town is making special effort to meet its promise of raising $2,500 by popular contributions. Pledged amounts made sometime ago, in sums of $100, $75, $50, $25, $15 and $10 have and are now being paid in at the Bank of Carthage, and up to Thursday morning over one-third of the amount had been paid in.

ELECTRIC LINES SEEK HIGHER FREIGHT RATES

Give Same Causes That Brought Increased Passenger Fares Demanding Equality With Trains

Twenty-one electric lines operating in Indiana, among them being the Indianapolis and Cincinnati traction company, have filed a petition with the Public Service Commission of Indiana, asking that they be granted the power to raise their freight rates. They set out in their petition that the steam lines have placed before the interstate commerce commission a petition for a higher rates, and if the electric lines are not placed on an equal, the freight will become congested and shippers will resort to the cheaper rates.

Several other reasons are assigned for the petition for high freight rates, and are enumerated as about the same causes for the increase granted the three traction companies on their passenger fares.

The three traction companies, The Indianapolis and Cincinnati, the Terre Haute, Indiana and Eastern and the Union traction company were granted an increase yesterday to raise their passenger rates up to an equal of three cents, with the steam lines. The petition for increased freight rates is asked to be effective when the steam line rates are put in operation. The passenger rates will be effective July 1.

DEMOCRAT PAPER SUSPENDS

Increased Cost of Production
Forces Paper to Quit

Shelbyville, Ind., June 25.—The Shelbyville Morning News, a daily newspaper published here, today announced that it will suspend publication July 1. The rising cost of newspaper other materials and labor is given as the cause. Leo Fuerst is editor of the paper, and Valentine Hey is business manager.

The paper was established here in August 1899, by Asa Braderick, as the Jeffersonian, being Democratic in politics. The name was changed in 1906 to the Morning News.

Shelbyville's other daily newspapers, the Republican and the Democrat will take over the business of the morning paper. The managing editors of the Republican and the Democrat today announced that the subscription rates would be increased July 1 from $4 to $5 in the city, and from $3 to $4 by mail. They also announced that their advertising rates will be advanced July 1.

ESBACH CONSENTS TO BE THE SPEAKER

Chief of the State Board of Accounts Will be Speaker of Special Session if He is Wanted

DATES STILL IS DOUBTFUL

Call is Expected to be Issued by Governor Goodrich Soon—Several Bills Under Consideration

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 25.—Jesse Eshbach, chief of the state board of account, will be speaker of the house of representatives at the proposed special session of the Indiana legislature if that body elects him, he said today.

"If the house of representatives wants me to be speaker I will serve in that capacity," Eshbach said today.

"If it does not it will be all right with me," I am not a candidate for the place."

Eshbach has served as speaker at many of the recent sessions. His statement clears up most of the uncertainty surrounding the speakership of the proposed session which Governor Goodrich announced will be called to appropriate money for the state institution.

That the call will not go out from the governor's office before next Monday was indicated by the state house officials today. It was generally believed around the state house that the assembly will meet during the latter part of next week.

Governor Goodrich is rushing preparations of bills which he will recommend in his message to the joint session of the house and senate.

The call will be issued on the completion of these measures, according to republican leaders.

A printed copy of each will be on the desk of each legislature when they take their seat in order to expedite their work.

SAYS THE CONVENTION FACES THREE FACTIONS

One Democratic Candidate Group
Three Things That Will Enter
The National Gathering

MENTIONS LIQUOR ELEMENT

San Francisco, Calif., June 25.—Three factions constituting practically the alignments of the political party will go into the democratic national convention Monday in the opinion of a prominent candidate for the presidential nomination.

According to this candidate the factions are grouped under the following leadership:

"The administration of W. J. Bryan and Charles Murphy. The first alignment will be that of Bryan and the Murphy factions inserted in the platform declaring for minor reservations to the league covenant which if successful would be a nominal defeat for the administration, the candidate said.

"The acceptance of the Bryan administration and the 'dry' element of the administration block will then unite to prevent the wet under Murphy's leadership from putting an anti-prohibition provision in the platform. At the same time it is believed the 'drys' will be content if they fail with making no efforts to insert a dry plank on the ground that such action would be superfluous.

"The final major alignment apparently would be that of Bryan and the administration faction to pick a presidential nominee. I believe that others effect this although Murphy generally is credited with controlling enough votes to exercise veto powers on the convention. Murphy would like to name the nominee and would prefer a 'wet.' But he and Tazewell and their lieutenants are political partisans and if they see they can not get what they want they will exceed to the will to the majority and climb right on the band wagon."

FOUNDRY COMPANY IS TO BE BUILT HERE

Will Dill Announces Today That
Construction on a Large Building
Will Begin at Once.

GENERAL FOUNDRY BUSINESS

The Dill Foundry company is the style of a new industry for Rushville, it became known today, and a large building will be under construction within a few days on West Third street, and when completed will employ several high salaried foundrymen, engaged in the general foundry business, with gray iron castings as the chief output of the factory.

The factory is being financed and managed by William Dill of this city and the foundation today was being staked off for a building 70 by 105 feet on a lot just east of the Big Four tracks, lying between the C. I. & W. railroad and Third street. Only recently the city opened up McFarlan street, which will serve as a side street entrance for the new factory.

Mr. Dill stated today that he is behind the new industry, and no stock will be sold. The building that will be erected will be a wooden construction, which later will probably be re-inforced with material more durable. The plant will be in operation as soon as completed, as much of the machinery and motors are now on their way to this city.

While the gray iron castings will be the chief output, Mr. Dill stated that the foundry will also be equipped to take care of anything in the line of foundry work.

INDIANA MAN LEADS

Atlantic City, N. J., June 25.—At the first ballot taken today for the international president of the association of international rotary clubs at the annual convention here failed to give a majority to any candidate. John Dyer, of Vincennes, Indiana was high man with 332 votes.

URGES ACCEPTANCE OF PEACE TREATY

Eliminate Article Ten and Ratify
Peace Treaty Should be Republican's Platform—Hoover

MAKES A STATEMENT TODAY

Says The Republican Party Can Strengthen Its Position by Adopting Constructive Policy

(By United Press.)

New York, June 25.—Earliest possible ratification of the German peace treaty, after elimination of Article 10 and adherence to the league of nations, as the platform upon which the Republican party should stand in the presidential campaign was urged by Herbert Hoover in a statement published by the New York Evening Post today.

Hoover advocated the league as "a product of the liberal class of the world" declaring that in such an organization there was no place for any threat of military force such as is implied in the present article 10.

Hoover urged the Republican party to take a definite stand for ratification of the treaty without article 10 in order to force the Democratic party into the position of defending "a practical military alliance—upon which their safety devices only further endanger the real value of the league."

Article 10 which Hoover would eliminate states that members of the league will undertake to preserve the territorial integrity of member nations.

Hoover said there was nothing in the phraseology of article 10 constituting a binding obligation but declared "there is an implication that a part has generally come to be regarded as constituting a strong moral responsibility." He said the real cause of dissension regarding the league was whether the United States should commit itself to guarantee the territorial integrity of foreign states and to use its military resources to carry out the league's decisions. This he said was the fundamental question around which the forthcoming election would be fought.

"The essential things about the league covenant that commends it to me," he said, "are, first, its recognition that wars have their springs chiefly in misunderstandings and its provision for an organization designed to minimize occasions for distrust by continuance common counsel and second its creation of facilities for converging upon any controversy wide publicity and the force of the public opinion of the world. The desirability of organizing these activities by international co-operation is supported by both our political parties."

Though article 10 and some references to it, the league covenant is to a degree a military alliance. Without this power it might not perhaps be as immediate in its effectiveness against some international crook but I am certain that no country can long continue in wayward action against such moral

Hoover declared that a nation would look with suspicion upon a league that called upon it to sacrifice human life; that the council was hesitating at the present movement to curb aggressiveness in various parts of the world because of the knowledge that in the present temper of the world's peoples, not a single soldier would be furnished by a nation aside from those with immediate and material interests at stake.

"The basic need for threatening military alliance against aggression is to control states which persist in amendment which renders them capable of aggressive action" Hoover continued. "If armament were limited to police purposes and to restrain the half civilized countries the other pressures of the league would be final although it is my belief that they are in the end effective even against aggressively armed states. The first and foremost duty of the league is therefore, the reduction of an armament that is now on a greater scale than in 1914."

Hoover said it was not generally realized that the treaty is now in effect and cannot be scrapped. "Europe has regretted but it has not waited upon the divided mind of the United States" he said. "It is the guarantee of the disarmament of four great autocracies, and no European nation is going to risk their revival."

"In the face of these conditions cannot the Republican party strengthen its own position by adopting the definite constructive policy of ratification subject to the minor reservations and a wider vision of strengthening the league by excluding the guarantees and their military enforcement—and making membership in the league conditional upon disarmament within a given period. Such policies will protect American independence, free us from every possible entanglement except the us of our moral and economic strength to enforce peace. It will leave our democratic friends fencing upon the ground of advocacy of a practical military alliance—upon which their safety devices only further endanger the real value of the league."

You Can, if You Will

Grit and perseverance can overcome almost any handicap of nature.

Near Bloomington, Ill., in the heart of the corn belt, the late spring threatened serious losses to the farmers because of their inability to do their planting in time to reap a harvest. To overcome this they have been planting corn far into the night, using searchlights to dispel the darkness.

In the outskirts of Chicago there is a young married man who works in his garden until 10 and 11 o'clock at night, using a carbide lantern for illumination.

Another man whose days are also fully occupied graded and terraced the grounds around his new house at night by the light of the searchlights on his automobile and the electric light on his front porch.

This is but an illustration of the ingenuity that is being brought into play all over the country, a trait which seems to predominate in American people.

It only requires a little ingenuity, a little determination and a reasonable amount of perseverance to achieve success in the sea of failure these days.

Where there is a will there is a way is of little value without the driving force of will power to pursue it to the point of achievement.

Notice, will you, that in the selection of candidates the views of the women are very carefully considered. She goes to the conventions, making speeches, gives her opinions of the planks to be incorporated in the platform, and gives the impression generally that without her good will no candidate can be successful at the polls. The days are past when women sit meekly in the background and obey the dictates of their lord and master. She is some lord and some master herself now.

Get ready for your honeymoons, girls. An aeroplane service is being mapped out from Seattle to Alaska, and the prospective bridegroom can hardly refuse you the trip if you touch him up in time. We might mention, as an added attraction, that you will not be unfeelingly interrupted by mosquitoes at that altitude.

The recent trip of the Prince of Wales to Canada cost $25,000. But it was probably worth it to the price, inasmuch as he took a peek at the U. S. A.

Our dea of a truly law abiding citizen is the fellow who won't even smuggle in a bottle of booze when he gets a chance. Know him?

ARTHUR LeBEAU, of Winoski, Vermont, who declares he is now in the "pink of condition" and enjoying life for the first time in many years as the result of taking Tanlac.

"Thanks to Tanlac I am now enjoying life for the first time in years," recently declared Arthur LeBeau, foreman of the Porter Screen Co., Winoski, Vermont. "For five years I was a sick man. My principal trouble was indigestion. I had no appetite and generally went off to work without any breakfast because I knew if I ate anything it would only upset me.

"My condition was so bad in fact, I could neither sleep, eat nor work with any satisfaction and was so nervous that the least thing would upset me. Nothing seemed to agree with me and I would have severe cramping pains in my stomach and at times my heart would palpitate badly. I also suffered from shortness of breath, and the least little exertion would make my heart thump like an engine.

"At last I almost decided I would give up my job as I got so weak and miserable I felt I could stand it no longer.

"One night as I sat reading a paper I saw a statement about Tanlac which convinced me it was just the medicine I needed. It helped me from the very first dose and at the time I had finished my third bottle, I hardly knew myself.

"I never had the slightest symptom of indigestion now and I feel like a brand new man in every way. My appetite is splendid, my nerves are steady and I sleep soundly at night. The work I used to dread now seems easy for me and I am now in the very 'pink of condition'. Of course, I am only too glad to recommend this medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by R. B. Johnson Co., in Milroy by Dalas Copper in Manila by Geo. J. Inlow, in Arlington by Mrs. L. T. Davis, and in Carthage by Otto C. McCarty. (Adv.)

"Excuse My Dust" at Princess

Wall Reid's new picture, "Excuse My Dust", which is the attraction at the Princess Theatre today, is an exciting automobile story and is the sequel to the handsome star's former success, "The Roaring Road". It is therefore fitting that the same screen favorites should support Mr. Reid in both vehicles. The leading woman is again Ann Little, who is one of flimdom's most popular actresses. Cast as "Toodles" Walden's sweetheart in "The Roaring Road," she figures as his wife in "Excuse My Dust". Theodore Roberts is once more, the "Bear" and "Toodles" boss, Tully Marshall, Guy Oliver, and Walter Long are also included in the cast.

"Excuse My Dust" was adapted by Will M. Ritchey from an original magazine story by Byron Morgan. It is a Paramount Aircraft picture and was directed by Sam Wood.

"The Path She Chose"—Mystic

"The Path She Chose" will be shown here tomorrow at the Mystic. It is Universal's screen version of a story by Ida M. Tarbell, whose pen sketches of American feminine types make her novels and short stories of absorbing interest. The photodrama, directed by Philip Rosen, is enacted by an all-star cast, including Kathleen O'Connor, Dagmar Godowsky, Claire Anderson, Edward Coxen, J. Farrell McDonald and starring Anne Cornwall.

"The Path She Chose" is a story of life in a large American city. It belongs to the realistic school of drama treating of the seamy as well as the smooth side of modern existence, and arguing the promise that it is possible today to accomplish what Abraham Lincoln did in rising from humble surroundings to a higher sphere of life.

The story is that of a young girl who has grown up amid sordid environment, who dreams of a life be-

If You Are Easily Tired Out, Your Blood Needs Purifying

Clogged-up Impurities Will Undermine Your Health.

The first symptoms are usually a loss of appetite, followed by a gradual lessening of energy, the system becomes weaker day by day, until you feel yourself on the verge of a breakdown.

This whole condition is but the result of impurities in the blood that show that nature needs assistance in giving the system a general housecleaning.

Nearly everybody just now needs a few bottles of S. S. S. to cleanse the system of impurities.

S. S. S. is without an equal as a general tonic and system builder. It improves the appetite and gives new strength and vitality to both old and young.

A delightful day was spent Tuesday at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mull when they entertained friends from New Salem with a pitch-in dinner. The guests were Mrs. John McKee, Mrs. Charles Wamsley, Mr. and Mrs. John Rickertis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Murphy, Mrs. Jerry Weir, Mrs. James McKee, Mrs. Donald Wilson, Mrs. Ernest Melbourne and daughter Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mull and the Misses May Weir, Blanche Armstrong, Kathleen McKee, Myrtle Shriner, Vera Mercer, Golda Weir, Carlos Weir, Deloris Wilson, Henry Maazy and John F. McKee, Jr. After the repast the guests motored to the river where the afternoon was enjoyed fishing.

The Misses Florence Warfield and Opal Linville celebrated their birthday anniversaries Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Warfield, north of the city, with an informal party. The guests were the Misses Reta Linville, Ruby Linville, Alta Byrd, Ellen Johnson, Bertha Ward, Mildred Powell, and Parvel Moore, Forrest Moore, Earl Roman, Bert Redden, Roy and Donald Waid, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Linville, Mr. and Mrs. John Warfield, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Meek, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Wilcoxson, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Warfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Lot Powell. The evening was enjoyed with games and dancing and at a late hour refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

County Agent and Mrs. C. M. Job formerly Miss Marian McMahan of this city, and who were recently married, were honored with a delightful reception Wednesday at their home in Columbus, Ind. Following is an account of the affair given by the Columbus Republican: County Agent and Mrs. C. M. Job, who were recently married and who are making their home in this city, were honored with a most delightful and interesting reception last night by the members of the Jersey Cattle Club and the Boys' and Girls' Calf Club. The reception was held at the Chamber of Commerce and there was a large attendance.

The parlors at the Chamber of Commerce were prettily decorated with June roses and other summer flowers and the program for the evening which was arranged by a committee from the two organizations began at 8 o'clock.

Following the program, Thomas Brockman, in behalf of the two clubs, presented Mr. and Mrs. Job with a handsome silver tea service and mahogany tray, and his presentation speech was responded to by both Mr. and Mrs. Job. Following the program there was a social hour during which the guests mingled and became better acquainted and at the close refreshments were served.

Honoring the birthday anniversary of Miss Marjory Crim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crim of this city, and who is taking treatment in the Dr. Long Hospital in Indianapolis for a diseased limb, her friends in this city remembered the day by sending her remembrances of fruit, candy, cake and postcards. Her mother, Mrs. Crim and Mrs. Margaret English, spent the day with her yesterday, helping her to celebrate the day. Little Miss Crim has been in the hospital for the past several weeks and her friends will be glad to hear that her condition seems hopeful.

LABOR BOARD WILL HASTEN ITS DECISION

Convenes Again to Settle Wage Increase Demanded by Two Million Railroad Employees.

TO PREVENT SERIOUS STRIKE

(By United Press.) Chicago, Ill., June 25.—The United States railroad labor wage board today took steps to hasten its decision on the demands of two million railroad employees for a billion dollar annual wage increase.

After the railroad union had gone into executive session here to discuss means to force an immediate action, the board went into session earlier than usual with instructions that they were not to be bothered by any one and intimated they will meet again this afternoon, all day tomorrow and possibly Sunday.

W. G. Lee, president of the brotherhood of railway trainmen declared today the meeting of the union leaders was called to discuss the present situation and "try and prevent a nation wide strike which seems to threaten the country."

The Misses Florence Warfield and Opal Linville and Earl Roman and Forrest Moore motored to Greensburg last evening and attended the dance at the Dalmert Hall.

ENTENTE TO MEET GERMANS AT SPA

Lloyd George Anxious That Spa Shall Wind up "Bargaining" With The German Treaty

TREATY NOT TO BE MODIFIED

This Meeting Has Possibility of Proving Left Profitable Than Previous Conference

By CHARLES McANN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

London, June 18 (By Mail)—Spa, where entente and German delegates will meet for the first time on a basis of equality, probably will be the last inter-allied conference of major proportions, dealing with the Versailles peace treaty. The tentative date set was July 5.

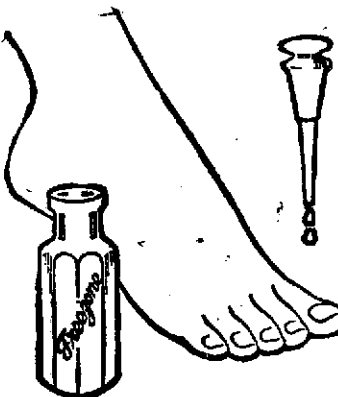

International developments, since the San Remo conference, have been such that Premier Lloyd George is extremely anxious that Spa shall wind up "bargaining" insofar as the German treaty is concerned. Since the Italian cabinet crisis and the Frankfort occupation it has become evident that co-operative action among the allies is scheduled to be more and more difficult. Economic and commercial rivalry between the European countries, regardless of past affiliations, will again develop individual action, except in the case of Turkey and Hungary, with whom treaties have yet to be concluded, will enable each country to "mend its own fences."

While, according to officials close to Lloyd George, the German delegation at Spa will be met as equals and will be permitted to present their own case in their own way, they come with the distinct understanding that the peace treaty is not to be modified in any way.

"The meeting can be compared to a conference between two giants, one of whom has secured a legal judgment against the other. Both agree that the judgment is valid and

Just. The matter to be discussed is, how it can best be collected. This was the analogy drawn by a British official who will play an important part at Spa.

The German delegates, according to well-informed officials, will be requested to make the first overtures. Millerand and Lloyd George, it is believed, have already decided upon maximum and minimum demands. Should the German estimate of their ability to pay fall within these limits, the conference will rapidly come to a close. On the other hand, if Germany's offer is below the estimate of the entente, her delegates will be given an opportunity to advance arguments and proofs in favor of their claims.

The general consensus among financial authorities at the present writing is that Germany will repeat the proposition made at Paris last fall by Brockdorf-Rantzau, namely, 5,000,000,000 pounds (nominally $25,000,000,000), with reservations bringing this sum down to approximately $7,500,000,000. Any such offer will be summarily dismissed.

Various estimates of what the Allied reparation demands will be have been made. That most often mentioned in the British press is $25,000,000,000 while the French experts place it at $30,000,000,000. Original demands made by France at the Versailles conference amounted to $50,000,000,000 while Keynes' appraisal of Germany's liabilities scarcely exceeded $10,000,000,000. Lloyd George it is understood has been greatly influenced by Keynes' deductions.

Infringements of the treaty, varied and many, will also be subject for discussion at Spa. This excepts the disarmament clauses, which the allies decided at San Remo and the Hythe conference should not be allowed to lag. Any questions concerning disarmament not already under consideration will, of course, be permanently disposed of.

Advance preparations at Spa for of coal, and France's recent arrangement with Britain, whereby the have been completed. The British former is to secure the largest part delegation will be located at the Hotel Balmoral, while Premier Lloyd George will be the private guest of Baron de Crahwez, burgomaster of Spa. The French mission will stay at the Grand Hotel Britannique; the American mission, if it appears, at the Hotel Rossette, and the Italian, Belgian and Japanese missions at private houses. The conference meets at the Chateau de la Fraincense, the residence of M. Pelzer-Vranx.

Failure of the United States to participate at Spa will be a great setback for the entente. The French hope of "immediate payment" is based upon the possibility of capitalizing Germany's reparation promises and disposing of the German bonds in the United States and Britain. Considerable wealth is in private hands in France, but French investors, after their experience with Russian war bonds, are loath to sink any considerable amount in German promises to pay.

According to American officials here, it is extremely unlikely that the United States will participate. At least, neither Ambassador Davis nor Ambassador Wallace at Paris has planned to go to Spa.

Italy's attitude at Spa is another angle that may cause difficulties. Until recently Italian officials have refused to recognize the Hythe and London conferences between Lloyd George and Millerand as anything but "informal personal meetings". Italy, they claim, must be consulted and agree to any international arrangements arrived at. Furthermore, Italy, who suffered as intensely, if not as generally, as France is also entitled to priority claims. And these must come from Germany as well as Austria, they declare. While not actively arrayed against Germany during the war, it is pointed out, the German army alone made the Austrian advance into Italy possible after the Isonzo and Caporetta offensives.

Italy also feels acutely the lack of coal, and France's recent arrangement with Britain, whereby the have been completed. The British former is to secure the largest part of England's local exports, has not created any to friendly feelings between the two neighboring nations. France's lien on the output of the Ruhr Valley, Italy also believes, is materially handicapping the reconstruction of the rest of Europe.

Unless all indications fail, Spa has possibilities of proving even less profitable than several previous conferences have been.

Roses Bloomed— So Did The Hats

By "MARJORIE"
(Written for United Press.)

New York, June 25.—June roses have blossomed. The time has come when Midway decrees that her gar must speak of autumn, that an falling leaves, and be so warm a line and texture that she can feel snowflakes and wintry winds upon her. All this has come to pass according to the sartorial wit of former fashion years, even though the dress associations did decree that no velvet and fur dress perfection would be upon the market this June tide. The Associated Milliner worked hardest at their slogan, a "Midsummer Hats for Midsummer Wear," and his really true that in Avenue and the hotel tea room flaunt no bona fide velvet and in chapeaux. But even the milliner have yielded to feminine whims and placed party velvet hats upon the market in response to the demand for "something advanced" in the line. Thus it is that fluffy-oiled heads bear great floppy legions of lace and maline headgear topped with velvet crowns in every shade of the rainbow. The season's reins knows as shrimp and lobster abound. But, as ever, black velvet reigns supreme and the smartest "out-of-season" hats are of cream straw brim and black velvet crown trimmed with flapping velvet streamers. Other models bespeak summer above but winter below, having linings of black or gaudy velvet.

The craze for "half and half" as regards the seasons is not confined to the hat realm alone. The Rue's find of mingling summery fabrics with the sterner stuff of hoary winter has struck the Avenue also, and that gay thoroughfare is crowded with these summery days with gowns of organdie and serge or voile and velvet. Even when a frilly, very sheer dress is seen, it is adorned with heavy flowers of wool that lend a wintry touch or a dark, heavy velvet handbag completes the costume.

The midwinter standby of warm Scotch plaid has been invogled into midsummer usage, and silks use red, yellow and green plaids for their trimmings. Another season reversal is shown in taffeta or satin models trimmed with summery flecks of organdie. A leading Fifth Avenue shop shows a thousand dollar gown of nigger brown taffeta with deep kangaroo-pouch pockets lined and befrilled with tiny ruffles of crisp organdie. Linens are using velvet and sombre colors for trimmings also. The same window

Mexican Jazz Tunes for Thirty
Seven and a Half Cents

AMERICAN FILMS SHOWN

Washington, June 25.—Three hours of high-class moving pictures for thirty-seven and a half cents, and a six to ten-piece orchestra playing Mexican jazz tunes and classical pieces, is the offer of motion-picture houses in the district of Torreón, Mexico, it was learned from the Department of Commerce.

Old French and Italian films are sold almost exclusively because of their cheapness, but when American films are shown, featuring American actors in thrillers, the crowds are enormous, it was stated.

Second-class movie theatres run serial pictures and charge from 15 to 20 cents a performance. They have smaller orchestras and the films are always sensational.

In the Torreón district there are no movie magazines, no newspapers, or no distributors of films, it was learned. The people, therefore, it was stated depend on a large part to get the news of the world from the movies, and as old films are usually shown they get the news a "little late."

Grateful For Relief Given Aged Mother

Miss Williams is Happily Surprised
By Trutona's Unusual Merit as Reconstructive Agency

Evansville, Ind., June 24.—"I am glad and enthused over the good Trutona has done me, but I simply lack the words to express my surprise and thanks for the relief of my mother's troubles," says Miss Sadie Williams, who lives in Evansville, at 808 East Pennsylvania street.

"My mother had suffered from catarrh of the stomach and bronchial trouble for years. Because of her advanced age and the failure of so many medicines to do her any good, I had almost despaired of my getting any relief."

"I myself had been constantly suffering from stomach trouble for several years. When I'd drink water a lump seemed to form in my stomach, and I'd belch terribly."

"Both mother and I are now eating things we never before dared to touch, since taking Trutona. We both sleep soundly at night and neither of us is bothered with constipation any more. We're both certain we wouldn't have been sick so long had we known of Trutona sooner. Any one is welcome to call on us regarding the truth of this statement."

Trutona's healthful action reaches every portion of the body, and performing its work faithfully and efficiently, Trutona rebuilds diseased nerves and tissues, creates a healthy appetite and assists in the assimilation and digestion of the food.

Trutona is sold in Rushville at Hargrove & Mullin's Drug Store.—(Adv.)

BASKETBALL RULES MAY BE CHANGED
High School Coaches in the State Have Received Questionnaires About Proposed Changes
EIGHT POINTS ARE INVOLVED
438 High School Coaches May Cause Some Changes Made if They Reply to The Blanks

By HEZE CLARK
(U. P. Staff Correspondent.)
Indianapolis, June 25.—In order that the basketball rules for the coming season may satisfy coaches, players and followers of the game in all sections of the country a questionnaire on the rules has been sent out to these men. They were sent out by Oswald Tower, chairman of the editorial committee, Phillips Andover Academy, Andover, Mass.
It includes eight questions besides a request for suggestions which might be beneficial to the game or which will tend to improve the administration of the rules.
In Indiana 438 high schools, members of the state association, were represented by basketball teams last year. Virtually every college in the state was represented by a team and there were many independent teams. It has been estimated that more than 50,000 persons were members of Indiana basketball team last season. Therefore changes in the rules are of general interest throughout the state.
The eight questions sent out are as follows:
"Shall the present inner lines at the end of the court be abolished, and the free throw lanes be continued from the back board to the new end line?"
"Shall a ball underneath the basket or behind the blackboard within the free throw lanes be thrown up between two opponents on the free throw lines?"
"Would you favor a rule which would make it a foul for player A to make an attempt, attended by personal contact, to get the ball from player B, when B succeeded in getting between A and the basket?"
"Do you favor any modification of the dribble rule which will tend to require the player to get rid of the ball before taking more than one step?"
"Would you favor a rule providing that time be taken out when a foul is called, watches to be started again when the ball leaves the hand of the free thrower?"
"Does the sections on questions and answers serve a useful purpose or does it cause confusion?"
"Would you favor a rule permitting a substitute to report either to the referee or umpire?"
"Would you favor a rule permitting a player who has been removed from the game for any reason excepting excessive number of personal fouls, to be returned during the next period as in football?"
Basketball followers of Indiana who have suggestions to make in regard to the rules should send them to Heze Clark, United Press, Indianapolis.

The Senator from Oklahoma May Figure as a "Dark Horse"
Senator Robert Latham Owen of Oklahoma isn't known by the name among members of the Cherokee Indian nation in his home.
The name they call him is Oconostota, the distinguished Cherokee ancestor of Senator Owen. His mother, Nitroisa Chisholm, a member of the Cherokee nation, called him that at his birth.
Senator Owen is the first presidential candidate in the history of the United States whose ancestors lived here long before the existence of America was known. His Cherokee ancestors were as prominent members of the Indian nation at one time as Senator Owen is prominent as one of America's statesmen today.
One of Senator Owen's most treasured possessions is a heavy watch which Thomas Jefferson presented silver Peace and Friendship medal to Thomas Chisholm, another distinguished Indian ancestor of the senator and the last hereditary chief of the Cherokee tribe.

Senator Owen, unlike most prominent men, was not born in poverty. His father was Col. Robert Latham Owen of Lynchburg, Va., where Robert was born. The elder Owen located and constructed the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad and later became its president. He also served as state senator in Virginia.
As a student at Washington and Lee University, from which he was graduated with honors, the young Owen showed marked ability as an orator which trait has placed him among the leading orators of the senate today. In college, Senator Owen took an active part in debates

When a Woman is Nervous—Worried
The lives of most women are full of worry. Men's troubles are bad enough, but women's are worse. Worry makes women sick. It pulls them down, and in their weakened condition they are subject to pains, aches, weakness, backaches, headaches and dizzy spells.
Most women neglect their health, and for this they pay the penalty. Any woman will find that neglect does not pay. A little more attention to health would brighten up her life. If she asks her neighbors she finds that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription benefits a woman's whole system. It not only acts upon the troubles and weaknesses peculiar to women, but is an all-round tonic that braces the entire body, overcoming nervousness, sleeplessness, headaches, dizziness and a run-down condition.
MOUNT VERNON, ILL.—"I am glad to say that Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription proved just as good as it is advertised to be. I was weak and lacked strength and ambition. I had worked hard and was poorly. I used the 'Favorite Prescription' and it gave me new strength, and seemed to put new life in me. I was pleased that it did so much for me and I am very glad to recommend it.—Mrs. Will Newst, No. 1213 West Broadway.

What Kills A Storage Battery

IF YOU let a windmill tank become nearly empty repeatedly the staves will soon fall to pieces. Exhausting a storage battery below the danger point repeatedly has a similar effect on the battery plates. Matthews' plan does not permit this. Long before they are exhausted to the danger point, the "Automatic Caretaker" automatically starts the generator recharging and stops it automatically when the batteries are full.

MATTHEWS' AUTOMATIC ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER PLANTS

protect an overloaded battery against heating by automatically taking ALL the load on the generator. But if the generator can't carry it all, the battery automatically "cut in" again and both bear the burden. Any plant that does less than this is NOT Full Automatic and is out of date the day it is installed.

HE'S "OGONOSTOTA" TO HIS CHEROKEES

1878—Moved to Indiana Territory (Oklahoma).
1889—Married to Daisy D. Hester, Oklahoma.
1880—Teacher, Cherokee Orphan asylum.
1880—Began practice of law.
1881-1884—Editor-owner of Indian Chieftain.
1884—U. S. Indian Agent for Five Civilized Tribes.
1892-96—Member Democratic national committee.
1907—Elected by unanimous vote as U. S. Senator.
1912—Re-elected Senator, majority of 42,989.
1918—Re-elected, majority 36,066 votes.
1920—Mentioned as presidential candidate.

and in the literary societies which were of more importance then, and had not been supplanted by football in the ambitions of college students. His friends say that Senator Owen inherited much of his oratorical ability from his learned Indian forefathers.

In Oklahoma, Senator Owen is known by his first name to all of the old "Sooners" who are ready and willing to do anything that will help "Bob" Owen.

Owen has lived in Oklahoma since he was quite a young man. He married Miss Daisy Deane Hester, December 31, 1889.

His career has been a varied one. First he taught school. Later he entered the newspaper field as an editor; abandoned this to become a lawyer and then went into banking. His success as a business man was demonstrated in all the professions he entered.

He became interested in politics in the early nineties and served as a member of the Democratic national committee from 1892 to 1896. He has been one of the most vigorous workers in the Democratic party since he has been old enough to vote.

As a member of the sub-committee that drew up the Democratic national platform in 1896, Owen contributed knowledge about things political and pertaining to the welfare of the party.

On December 11, 1907, the Democrats of the state legislature in Oklahoma unanimously elected him to the United States senate. Five days later he took his seat as senator.

So satisfactory was his career there, that he was renominated August 6, 1912, by a majority of 35,600 votes. And at the November elections he was elected senator by a plurality of 42,989 votes exceeding the plurality of the national ticket by 14,619 votes.

When elected senator by the Oklahoma legislature he received an honor seldom accorded in political circles. For he received the vote of every member present—and every member was present.

In August, 1918, Senator Owen was again renominated, this time by a majority of 48,000 votes. He was re-elected again in November by a plurality of 36,066 votes.

Senator Owen has always been an advocate of woman's suffrage and of prohibition. These two, in particular, are his pet hobbies. But he has also championed the initiative and referendum, the short ballot and has served as president of the National Popular Government league.

Sweden Given Prized Relic.
The general's collar worn by Gustavus Adolphus, king of Sweden, when he was killed at the battle of Lutzen in 1632, has been presented to the Scandinavian government by the Austrian government in recognition of charity to Austria. The insignia was taken from his body by soldiers of the Austrian guard and has been in a military museum ever since.

Chinese Girls Fight the Boys.

According to the Peking Jingo the experiment of mixed education has not been a brilliant success in the capital as it resulted in a stand up fight between girl and boy students in the government university. It appears that during school hours some of the boys attempted to "cut out" the swains of some of the girls, and these, becoming jealous, tried to wreak vengeance. The government has dismissed all the participants in the scrap and has decided that the present moment is inopportune for mixed education and will drop the scheme.

WAS ANNOYED BY CATARRH OF HEAD

Terre Haute man says his nose was stopped up every morning; phlegm in his throat and breath foul. Nothing he ever took helped him like Dreco did.

"Every morning it would take me a couple of hours to get my nose and throat cleared out, which I knew was catarrh," said Mr. Wm. Goodrich, of 2239 3rd Ave., Terre Haute, Ind.

"I kept hawking and spitting and continually clearing my throat; my breath was foul and my breathing was difficult. I used several sprays and creams in my nose, but they didn't seem to help much. This Dreco medicine has certainly helped me. My head is clear; in fact, every symptom of catarrh is much better."

"I also had aching pains in my back and my stomach was in a bad condition, as it filled up with gas after every meal and was very painful; I sometimes wondered if I had catarrh of the stomach; I didn't sleep well and often got dizzy."

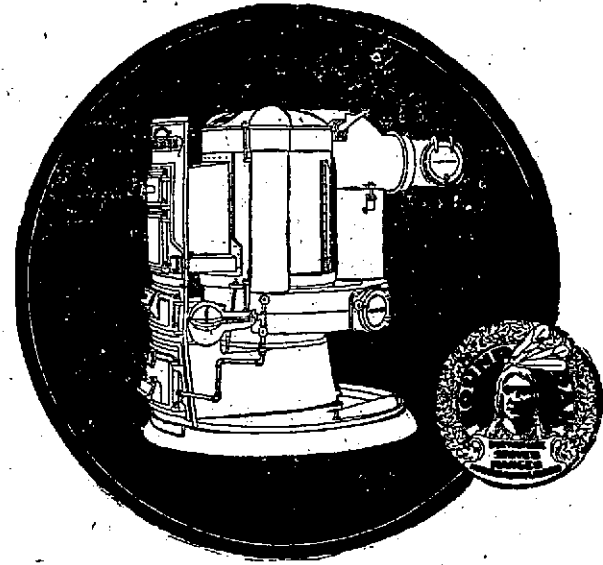

"Dreco has brought about a big change in my feelings, and I gladly commend it to all sufferers."

The one positive way to overcome catarrh is through the blood. The blood absorbs Dreco very quickly and takes it to the weak parts of the body, where its tonic and strengthening effects are soon felt.

"Dreco contains no iron, mercury, potash or other harsh mineral, but is made from juices and extracts of many herbal plants, which act pleasantly on the vital organs."

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is being especially introduced here by
